Coal Men Oppose Increased Rates.
Galveston, May 27.—Formal endorsement of action already taken in opposition to the proposed increase of freight rates on coal into Texas from Arkansas, Oklahoma and Colorado was voted today by the Texas Coal Dealers' association in convention here. The proposed increased rates have been suspended by the interstate commerce commission until Sept. 1, pending investigation. The coal dealers elected officers just before adjourning this afternoon. They are: C. H. Lilley, of Fort Worth, president; R. L. Cole, of Krum, first vice president; C. R. Goldman, of Dallas, second vice president; E. T. Coleman, of Plainview, secretary-treasurer.

Samuel Rosenthal Killed by Woman at San Antonio

San Antonio, Tex., May 27.—Samuel Rosenthal, business man of San Antonio and prominent in local Jewish circles, was shot and instantly killed at 11 o'clock this morning. Mrs. E. J. M. Hopkins, 54 years old, is under arrest, charged with the murder. The killing occurred at a public auction sale and four shots were fired from a revolver, two entering Rosenthal's body. A panic ensued.

Chicken Salad Case on Trial at Austin

Austin, Tex., May 27.—The so-called chicken salad and punch injunction case, wherein Representative Middleton is plaintiff and Comptroller Terrell defendant, was on trial today before Judge George Calhoun in the fifty-third district court. It was decided to waive a jury. Judge Ike D. White, an Austin attorney, is representing Governor Ferguson. At the session today grocers who sold merchandise to the executive mansion during the Colquitt administration were on the stand. Former Governor Colquitt may be called upon to testify.

Temple Y. M. C. A. Reports.
Temple, Tex., May 27.—The annual meeting of the board of directors of the railway Y. M. C. A. was held last night, at which time the annual report of the secretary, C. D. Wolfe, was received, showing the activities and operations for the past year.

Good Crop at Cross Plains.
Cross Plains, Tex., May 27.—Grain conditions in this section are better than they have been in years. All early oats and wheat is extra good. Late grain is not so good.

Elevator Burns at Vernon.
Vernon, Tex., May 27.—The Anderson elevator, owned as an auxiliary plant by the Kell Milling company, was burned here late last night, about twenty-five thousand bushels of maize, and two thousand bushels of oats being destroyed. The elevator was insured for $5,000 dollars, and the grain for $20,000. Three box cars, one loaded with hay, also were burned. The origin of the fire is unknown.

JONES HEARD FROM AFTER SIX MONTHS

Tennessee Postmaster Who is Father of Fourteen Gives Second Report.

Mr. R. L. Jones, who for eighteen years has been postmaster and railroad agent at Brunswick, Tenn., and who has the proud distinction of being the father of fourteen children, gave the following interview while in Memphis recently.

"You remember my giving you a statement sometime last August. I want to say to you now that in that statement I did not give all the credit which was due Vitalitas. I now know that Vitalitas is the greatest medicine I have ever seen or heard of. Prior to my taking it I was all down and out, having stomach troubles so acute that my one desire was to die; but I tell you right now I am as good a man as I was at 40 and at that age I was in my prime. I am now 73 years, and am the father of fourteen, and feel as good and healthy today, thanks to Vitalitas, as I have ever felt. All my stomach trouble is gone and I feel fine. I cannot say too much for Vitalitas."

Statement Shows the Business Texas Roads Compared With 1914

Austin, Tex., May 27.—The railroad commission today made public a comparative statement showing operating revenue and operating expenses and income from operation of the railroads of Texas for the period of nine months ending March 31, 1915, as compared with the same period of the previous year. The total operating revenue amounted to $22,206,510, which is a decrease of $3,304,859, or 3.6 per cent.

Former Banker Kills Himself.
Cashier Harold P. Perkins of the Farmers' State bank at Chappell Hill committed suicide last night by shooting, according to an inquest verdict rendered today. He had been in ill health for some time. He is prominently connected at Austin, Beaumont and Navasota.

Man Found Dead in Dallas.
Dallas, Tex., May 27.—A man registered at a local hotel as Thomas Evans of La Grange, Ga., was found dead in his room today. He was about 35. A local paper published a story that he died from a blow on the head received when he was held up and robbed two days ago, but this could not be verified.

Lindsley Will Not Be Dictated to About Jitney Regulation

Dallas, May 27.—"We are going to apply the same necessary regulation to street cars that we do to the jitneys or anything else that should be regulated. When this administration gets ready to do this we will not be influenced by any attorneys, by any interests, nor by any newspaper. We will consider the question only from the standpoint of the public."

Start Asphalt Work on Streets of Temple

Temple, Tex., May 27.—Work of placing asphalt on six miles of Temple streets was started this morning by the contractors, Levy & Levy, who are finishing a large paving contract made with Bell county and the city of Temple. Ten miles of vitrified brick and asphaltic concrete pavement are being laid in the residence sections at a cost of approximately $300,000. Property owners are participating by paying their portions of the cost.

H. C. Standbury at Marlin.
Marlin, Tex., May 27.—H. C. Standbury, postmaster at Rosebud, passed through Marlin today on his return from Waco, where he attended the Postmasters' convention. His term at Rosebud expires in December and he will not be a candidate for re-appointment.

New Pipe Organ at Temple.
Temple, Tex., May 27.—A modern pipe organ is being installed in Christ Episcopal church of this city at cost of $3,000, representing the gift of the ladies of St. Agnes Guild of the church.

AFTER PASSING YEARS

Waco Testimony Remains Unshaken.
Time is the best test of truth. Here is Waco story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.
J. P. Bahl, prop. barber shop, Waco, says: "Kidney complaint caused me much suffering. I felt languid and had headaches and dizzy spells. I could get no rest at night. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills quickly removed the trouble. Nothing has occurred to change my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills since I publicly recommended them some years ago."
Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bahl had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Public Health Nurse Keeping Busy; More Subscribers Needed

Additional names for the fund with which to defray the expenses of maintaining the public health nurse during the hot summer months were reported yesterday as follows:

Mrs. J. D. Bell.
Mrs. Julia Henry.
Mrs. Walter Fort.
Mrs. Baldwin.
Miss Susie Jones.
Miss Ida Duke.
W. R. Saunders.

While the list of subscribers is now in the neighborhood of 100, it will require many more names to carry out the program mapped out by the advisory committee, unless some of those who have subscribed once are asked to do so again. The nurse is receiving more calls than she can well respond to, but she is working long hours in an effort to meet the demands and those who are interested directly in the work are hopeful that all friends of the deserving poor will come forward with their contributions at once, and thus enable the work to be carried forward to the best possible advantage.

Contributions should be sent to Mrs. W. O. Wilkes, treasurer, 1608 Washington street, or the Morning News or the Times-Herald. Nothing in excess of $1 is asked for, though contributors may give as much or as little as they feel like doing.

Jack McClintock Wins Many Medals

Six gold medals, one silver and three bronze medals, and a silver loving cup makes quite a collection of trophies for Jack McClintock of this city to remember his school days at Allen Academy, Bryan, Texas. Young McClintock is the son of J. S. McClintock of this city and returned last night from his third year at Bryan Academy, where he will be graduated next year. He is 18 years old. Four of the gold medals are for first places won in the recent interscholastic games held at A. & M. College, being in the 220-yard low hurdles, the 120-yard low hurdles, the hammer throw and pole vault. The silver medal was for first place in the shot-put contest, and the bronze medals for third places in the 50-yard dash, 100-yard dash, and discus throw. McClintock also won the silver cup in the meet for the winner of the greatest number of points. His record was 26, and that of his nearest competitor 18. Another gold medal certifies that he is the best all-around athlete in Bryan Academy.

To show that his medal-winning ability runs to other lines besides athletics, young McClintock brought back the gold medal given to the student at Bryan who kept the neatest room.

McClintock received his preliminary athletic training here in the Y. M. C. A. He was born and reared in Waco, and has many friends who will rejoice in his successes.

Waco Manufacturers Directors Meet at Luncheon This Noon

Plans for inaugurating a campaign of advertising to follow up the general publicity aroused by the recent Made-in-Waco exposition will be worked out at a meeting of the Waco Manufacturers' association, called for that purpose at the Waco hotel at noon today. The meeting was called by J. M. Penland, chairman of the home industry committee of the Young Men's Business league, which had charge of the Made-in-Waco exposition. Plans for both individual and central campaigns will be discussed.

MISS ENRIQUE SMITH HAS BRIDGE JUNIORS

The Misses Norma Bonner and Agnes Blanding of Corsicana with Mrs. Louis Stephens were invited by Miss Enrique Smith to play with the Bridge Juniors when she entertained on Wednesday afternoon. The high score gave Miss Nancy Lacy the piece of linen. Mrs. Stephens, president of the club before her marriage, invited the Juniors for a complimentary game next Tuesday afternoon.

MRS. CLINTON PADGITT HAS DOMESTIC SCIENCE

With only the usual routine of a pleasant hour in fancy work and small talk, interrupted by the luncheon plate, Mrs. Clinton Padgitt was hostess to the Domestic Science. Her special invited guests were the Mesdames William Jones, W. C. Richter, Forrest Goodman, Llewellyn Aubrey. It is expected that the club will take summer vacation.

MRS. W. V. CRAWFORD FOR PLEASURE AND PROFIT

At the session of the Pleasure and Profit club, where Mrs. W. V. Crawford of Reynolds street was hostess, was decided to adjourn for the warm weather without any special entertainment, as had been discussed. Instead, this club proposes to open the new season with an early autumn musical. Mrs. Crawford had no special feat introduced, two guests, the Mesdames M. L. Snell and Slade.

THE MATINEE BRIDGE WITH MRS. ASHER SANGER

Only Mrs. Sam Sanger and Mrs. Marian Herz were invited by this week's hostess for the Matinee Bridge, Mrs. Asher Sanger. This was the customary game with the prizes falling to Mrs. Joe Sanger and Mrs. Alexander Sanger. The next game will come with the morning hours. Mrs. Dan White is the hostess to be. At this time, decision will be made as to whether or not the club adjourns for the summer.

THE MARY WEST CHAPTER WITH MRS. D. M. WILSON

The bi-weekly business session of the Mary West chapter was held with Mrs. D. M. Wilson as hostess for Circle Number Two, in which Mrs. T. A. Blair was chairman. Details were dispatched, the most important being the unanimous vote for change of plan in observance of the Jefferson Davis birthday. This was first announced for Sunday afternoon, but it will now come with the exact birthday, Thursday, June the third. The Mesdames J. T. Strain and M. C. H. Meadams, in the home of the latter, will be hostesses to the Daughters and the Veterans. An interesting program, commemorating the president of the Confederacy, is being prepared by the chapter historian, Mrs. J. Findley Smartt. With the passage of refresh-

MISS LURLINE MOSELEY BECOMES A JUNE BRIDE

Miss Lurline Moseley is now letting her friends know that she is to be the bride of E. F. Harvey of Philadelphia, with mid-June, in this, Mr. and Mrs. William Moseley are giving in marriage their only daughter, and society is losing one of its popular girls. This wedding, although of wide spread interest, will be just as quietly consummated as can be. There will be no guests except the immediate household and an immediate departure for extensive travel, even so far as Newfoundland. As yet the date is no further definite than middle June. Mr. Harvey is altogether a stranger to this city. The acquaintance which means so much more now, began in Mexico before Miss Moseley moved to her West Washington street home. By special request of the bride to be, there will be no attention from the many friends who would be pleased to give the nuptial demonstration of friendship.

NEW YEARBOOK COMES FROM WOMAN'S CLUB

With the compliments of chairman of program committee, Mrs. Ben Gray Kendall, a copy of the new book comes from the Woman's club. This bears the accustomed cover in the club colors of crimson and white, and all that the year of 1915-1916 will be devoted to the review of "Culture and Civilization" in a course of study prepared by Victor S. Yarros of Chicago. As sub-title there is stated that this course covers what the various races have contributed; radical national, psychology and characteristics. This is indeed a broad topic, but one quite timely in this pressure of national principles, and the charge of nations in lack of culture, for their opponents. The Woman's club is now twenty-three years old. It is affiliated with the national federation and the state. The officers for the ensuing year are: President, Mrs. J. W. Hale; vice president, Mrs. Llewellyn Aubrey; recording secretary, Mrs. Ben Gray Kendall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. L. Kessler; treasurer, Miss Susie Jones, and auditor, Mrs. Ermine Carrington. The several members are assigned to one of the standing committees, which makes a complete list, since this is strictly a limited club. There are no changes from last season except that substitutes for the year past will take permanent place. The club will take precedence of former years and come together with middle October in the home of Mrs. John G. Kendall. The study begins at once, this program with Mrs. Kendall being culture in general and culture as specifically treated by Ralph Waldo Emerson and Matthew Arnold. Each program closes with a general discussion. In January a date is left vacant, this to be arranged as a birthday celebration by the entertainment committee, the Mesdames Charles Boynton, Edward Rotan and Miss Grace Prather. There is no other departure from the study programs until the annual picnic in middle May. If the bibliography is followed, the members of the Woman's club have a strenuous year of reading ahead of them. This bibliography contains thirty-four books, written by writers of various nations. The last page of the yearbook is reserved as memorial to Mrs. Marie M. Ferrell, for many years one of the most devoted of Woman's club members. Other names mentioned, the club will have next year, the Mesdames Ada Fisher and Minnie Taylor with the Mesdames O. E. Arbuckle, A. J. Armstrong, H. C. Black, William Freest, J. A. Gamel, R. Arthur Johnston, J. R. Milam, H. B. Mistrot, William McCall, John Sleeper, W. O. Wilkes, J. D. Willis and A. E. Wells.

Society Notes

If the Palm Beach suit become much more popular, there need be no contest on the Polymeriel for the women. With the second week in June, the Mrs. J. W. Halsey is closing for the season. Mrs. Bass goes to Chicago.

Quite a number of out-of-town guests are expected for the Andrews-Boyet wedding, which comes with the last week in June.

Miss Nell Grand underwent operation for appendicitis at Providence Sanitarium on Wednesday. Her condition is quite favorable.

It is the interesting topic of society these days to hear summer plans discussed. It seems so far by common consent we are all going West.

The Misses Vera and Grady's Montgomery, both of whom are listed as June brides, will be honored in a reception within the coming week.

Seventeen June brides already declared, and more to come, says Dame Rumor, and this inquisitive old woman generally knows whereof she speaks.

Mrs. W. O. Wilkes is suffering from a distressing accident, that of both feet sprained. She returned from Mississippi thus crippled and will be dependent upon her crutches for a month at least.

Mrs. J. E. Boynton has with wintered in Boston, where she is listed as fully recovered. She will be in Waco in September. She spends the summer in Maine and will include a visit with Mrs. Champe Eubank Meade at the Plains, Virginia.

On Sunday of the coming week, this will be Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sanger with Mrs. Alfred Godshaw for New York, also Mrs. Ben Eitelson and children for Chicago.

Now that the good roads are coming into the county, the women of Waco are hoping to see vines along the hedgerows, and other bits of civic beauty made possible by the women in the country homes.

The word "homey" seems to have come to stay. It is not quite to be remarkable.

FIGHTING TRIM.

In a pamphlet entitled "Fighting Trim," issued by the United States Public Health Service, Surgeon J. M. Eager lays stress upon personal endeavor of every individual as of the highest public importance in the organized war against disease. The wonderful victories that have been won in combating infectious maladies have had a tendency to divert popular attention from the equally important personal fortification against diseases of all kinds. The question of preparedness against onslaughts of the enemy, a query prominent in the minds of everyone in these days of warfare is put in a special personal bearing as relating to the dangers threatened by disease, the permanent enemy of mankind. Are you personally prepared, it is asked, for the hand-to-hand encounter with disease that you are sure to be forced into sooner or later or in which perhaps you are already engaged? Unless you are willing to succumb without a struggle, fight you must, no matter how feeble your fighting proclivities are. The inevitability of the battle against disease is strongly insisted upon. Peace between nations, it is stated, may not be an unattainable hope, but even when the much desired era of human concord comes and armed strife among men has ceased, there will still be an everlasting battle to fight, a ceaseless struggle for a few more years of health and life, a desperate conflict against a foe who, as far as victory over the individual fighter is concerned, is certain in the end to win—the battle against disease.

In the defense against disease two things are necessary—a systematic union of fighters, the sanitary organization, and personal preparedness, the product of intelligent and diligent personal hygiene. Personal preparedness is the patriotic duty of every citizen as an aid to national sanitary defense. No man as a member of society is morally free to live unhygienically or to acquire disease through lack of personal care. Like a slovenly soldier, the person who neglects his health, risks imparting to others his loose morale, or even transmitting disease to the whole community.

"Health is a man's most valuable possession. Without it he cannot hold or enjoy anything else that falls to his lot or that he wins in the battle of life. Without health he is a burden to himself and, unless he possesses marked compensatory qualities, an encumbrance to his comrades. Though as victims of life's ill chance, they are entitled to the most sympathetic consideration, it is a sad fact that the sick cannot but be considered as impediments in the conflict of existence. Their place is in the rear. Often, indeed, as easy marks for the attacks of disease, they become targets, drawing the fire of the enemy. Wealth, position, friendship, ability to help others are largely discounted by physical infirmity."

The health making attitude of mind is represented as a profitable talent and fortunately one that can be acquired. Doctor Eager calls attention to the large available mass of literature on health subjects—work, exercise, relaxation, sleep, fresh air, proper temperatures, food, cooking, cleanliness, etc., that should be judiciously selected and studied. Every person must learn for himself what peril threatens in his special place in life.

Studies of health subjects in schools and clubs, its exposition in public lectures, newspaper articles, and bulletins, have the salutary tendency, it is stated, to promote wholesome practices as an habitual exercise and develop the precious quality of automatically choosing in every action and habit of life those courses that conduce to bodily soundness.

There are eleven nations engaged in the European war at present. Now if some of the peace advocates can manage to get two more countries involved, maybe the jinks will do what the peace movement and the armies have been unable to do—bring the bloody tragedy to an end.

TO KEEP THE RECORD STRAIGHT.

The Morning News has no quarrel to pick with those fourteen senators who voted for the Gibson bill in the memorable struggle in which that measure met its death at Austin Tuesday afternoon. We presume they had reasons which they deemed sufficient and they will have only to answer to their constituents for the manner in which they voted. But just for a permanent record of their stand on this matter—for the same issue may be revived next year if Governor Ferguson carries out his intention to take the issue before the people of the state—names of the senators who voted for the Gibson bill and for the repeal of the Robertson insurance law, are given as follows: J. R. Astin, Bryan; John H. Bailey, Cuero; Carlos Bee, San Antonio; Hugh Brelsford, Eastland; I. E. Clark, Schulenberg; F. M. Gibson, Bonham; Jas. H. Harley, Seguin; Hugh Harris, Temple; S. M. King, Nacogdoches; A. R. McCollum, Waco; W. C. Morrow, Hillsboro; Archie Parr, San Diego; L. H. Bailey, Houston; W. L. Hall, Wharton.

Nor would we enter into a denunciation of those senators who voted against the Gibson bill, as Governor Ferguson did, nor question their motives, as some of the papers have done. We believe they felt the Robertson law was a good law for this state and that the interests of Texas would be best conserved by its retention. Time will tell which group of senators was correct in their analysis of the situation that confronted them. But for the sake of the record the names of those who stood by the Robertson law are published as follows:

R. B. Conner, Brownwood; S. B. Cowell, Whitesboro; H. L. Darwin, Cooper; Claude Hudspeth, El Paso; W. A. Johnson, Memphis; O. S. Lattimore, Fort Worth; T. H. McGregor, Austin; John M. Henderson, Daingerfield; J. C. McNeel, Dallas; C. W. Nugent, Conroe; Paul D. Page, Bastrop; A. C. Robbins, Athens; Lon A. Smith, Henderson; Will D. Suiter, Winnsboro; W. J. Townsend Jr., Lufkin; Ed Westbrook, Farmersville; James R. Wiley, Saint Jo.

We believe the old-line companies which quit the state of their own accord several years ago—they could still do business here at a profit if they wanted to—will come back in spite of the Robertson law. We have never been able to see where their proposition to Governor Ferguson was binding or where it offered any hope of cheap money to the farmers of Texas. On the other hand, the Texas companies which have been built up since the Robertson law went into effect seven years ago have not kept faith with the people of this state if, as has been charged, they have been loaning money in other states at considerably lower rates than have been charged at home. But until fuller assurances are afforded that the repeal of the Robertson law will bring more and cheaper money into this state and place it within reach of those who need it most, we think it well enough that the Gibson bill was defeated.

But while the people of the state are making a record of how their senators voted on the Gibson bill, it would be well for them to bear in mind the members of the senate who have blocked the redistricting program again during the special session. We are not in favor of the use of the boycott, but those senators who killed the redistricting of this state for political considerations ought to be swatted good and hard the next time they seek re-election or offer for any other public office, and we believe they will be.

ITALY AND THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE.

The Italian government is not only making history today; it is furnishing new knowledge of past history. By publishing the dispatches which have passed between Rome and Vienna, it is giving to the world a better understanding than we have before had of the exact nature of the Triple Alliance, says the New York Evening Post. It is something like a secret article of a secret treaty that Italy now makes public. Without quoting this article except by number, the Green Book makes it clear that Italy has a technical case for "compensation." That is to say, if either Austria or Germany took steps to aggrandize herself, Italy was to be entitled to territorial enlargements. The direct assertion is made that the attack of Austria upon Serbia brought this secret agreement into play. Accordingly, the Italian government at once began to press the Austrian for the "compensation" due. At first, the Austrian foreign minister denied that Italy had a case; but finally—it may be under German tutelage—he admitted the force of the Italian contention, and began the long and rather sordid negotiation over terms. This has now broken down. The haggling is at an end. Italy has declared the Triple Alliance no longer binding upon her, and holds her hand free to make war upon her former allies.

These disclosures put us for the first time in possession of what may be called Italy's standing in court. We see now, as we could not before, the technical, legal basis for her proceedings. She had a lawful claim under the treaty with Austria and Germany. This she has been pressing for months; and now, after she has failed to get as much as she wanted, she merely breaks the matter short, accuses Austria of not living up to treaty obligations, and puts herself in readiness for war. The world has long been wondering what ostensible casus belli Italy could find. Now we know. She can point to the Triple Alliance and affirm that the rights accorded her by it have not been respected. This, of course, is a purely legalistic justification. It does not go to the moral bearings of the case. In impartial eyes it will not make Italy's position glorious or even handsome. She has today too much the appearance of having invited bids for her support in the war, and of having finally gone where the highest price was offered. That her statesmen have displayed great skill throughout the crisis must be admitted. They gained the delay necessary to arm, at the same time that they took up the work of shaping Italian opinion, and kept the powers in doubt. Finally, in most dramatic fashion, they forced the hand of the king and spiked the guns of the once dominant Giolitti. If the war goes well, and Italian dreams are realized, the names of Salandra and Sonnino will be placed alongside Cavour's. Yet even so, the friends of Italy in neutral countries can not help regretting that, in all this business, she has not stood more erect before the world.

As for the now defunct Triple Alliance, itself, it was always an unnatural alliance, so far as Italy was concerned. She may have found her account in it, especially by securing a freer hand in Africa than she would otherwise have had; but it remained for her, as it did for Austria, a strange wedding of incompatibilities. Italy was taken into the Triple Alliance only because Russia withdrew from the Dreikaiserbund. Bismarck was always perfectly frank about this. And he never concealed his cynicism in regard to the position which Italy might take in case of war. His hopes hardly went beyond an Italian demonstration on the French frontier. But today she is across the frontier in the embrace of France! There is a passage in Bismarck's Reminiscences in which he comes pretty near to foreseeing the actual situation today. He thought it probable that, one day, Austria and Germany would have to face Russia and France in arms. In case Italy were to be loyal to the alliance there need be no great fear. But Bismarck added that there was ever a possibility that ancient national animosities and ambitions might be stirred in Italy, and that she might make war upon Austria in a struggle for the control of the Adriatic. In that event, Bismarck recorded the opinion that the fight would be "unequal" for Austria and Germany. What would he have thought with England added to the list of Germany's enemies?

The end of the Triple Alliance was assured before Italy formally "denounced" it on May 4. The brains were out of it long ago. Its extinction was certain two months after the war broke out. Whatever the outcome of the conflict, the old alignment of the European nations could not persist. Yet there is an inevitable sense of melancholy in witnessing this downfall of the whole fabric reared by Bismarck. What a comment on the futility of statesmanship even when most far-sighted! Especially bitter must be the disappointment at this failure of what was so long hailed as the sure guarantee of peace. Boastings on that score were no more common at the meetings of the three monarchs of the Triple Alliance than at the conferences between the Czar of Russia and the president of the French republic, with their iteration of the phrase, "la paix est assurée." We begin to understand better now what Sir Edward Grey meant when he warned the kaiser last July of the "incalculable consequences" of war. Yet there are gentlemen in nearly every street car, certainly in every club—also, we admit, in some newspaper offices—who are confidently re-making the map of Europe and reading in oracular fashion the book of fate. The events we are witnessing reinforce the humble conclusion of the poet: "Sometimes I think 'twere best to leave the Lord alone."

It has been nearly a week since there was a new candidate for the United States senate and still longer than that since Mexico had a new president. But the Lusitania and Italian incidents have tended to obscure the Mexican situation and it is of no advantage to anyone to be declared president of Mexico when there is no chance for the outside world to hear of it.

Judge Nelson Phillips, if elevated to the position of chief justice of the state supreme court, as we presume he will be, will grace that post in spite of the fact that he will, doubtless, be the youngest man that has ever filled it. A man of scholarly attainments, fine legal mind and judicial temperament, he is in every way equipped for that high office and we believe he will fill it with distinction to himself and honor to his state.

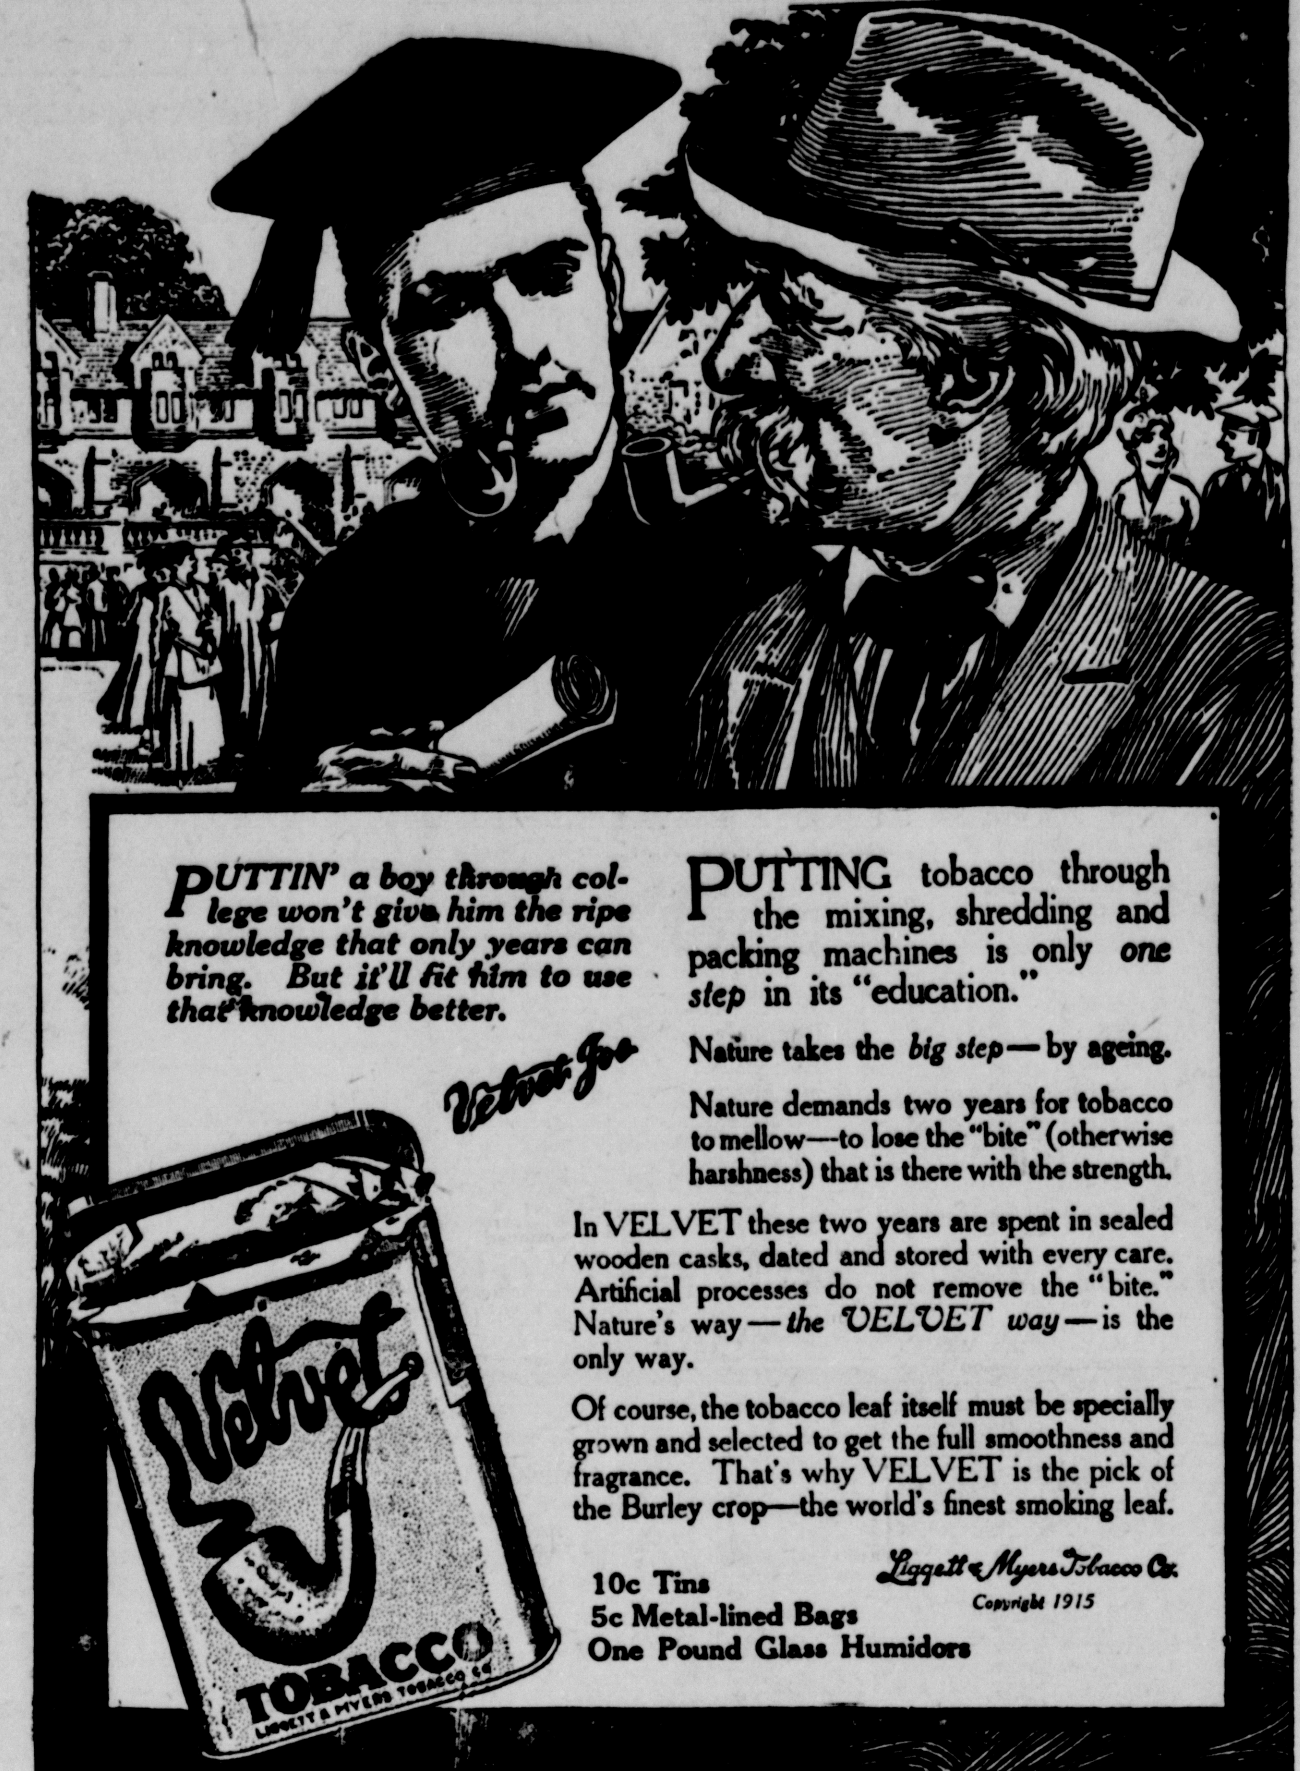

Chief Justice T. J. Brown of the Texas supreme court was an eminent jurist who had given long and faithful service to this state. In fact, few men have served this state longer or with more fidelity and his family will have the record of his long and useful career as well as the sympathy of thousands of friends to cheer them in their bereavement.

Not all the church members went to prayer meeting Wednesday night, on account of the rain and hail storm, but advices received at this office are to the effect that some of them held private prayer meetings in their homes while the storm was at its height.

The court says a new legal question is raised by the action of a jury at Childress in acquitting a negro bootlegger after the black had already confessed the crime. There may be a judicial or legal question involved, all right, but a more pertinent question is, Who had the negro been supplying with booze?

Such refreshing weather always follows in the wake of hail storms that we are confident the other towns of Texas will regret they were not favored by the weather man as we were Wednesday night.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has ruled that the railroads must dispense with their boat lines, but it has not told the roads what they must do with the idle water they have left.

PUTTING tobacco through the mixing, shredding and packing machines is only one step in its "education."

Nature takes the big step—by ageing.

Nature demands two years for tobacco to mellow—to lose the "bite" (otherwise harshness) that is there with the strength.

In VELVET these two years are spent in sealed wooden casks, dated and stored with every care. Artificial processes do not remove the "bite." Nature's way—the VELVET way—is the only way.

Of course, the tobacco leaf itself must be specially grown and selected to get the full smoothness and fragrance. That's why VELVET is the pick of the Burley crop—the world's finest smoking leaf.

forty-ninth judicial district, the bill restoring civil and criminal jurisdiction to the county court of Kendall county, bill extending the time for expenditure of funds by the board of control of the girls' training school.

The house miscellaneous appropriation bill came over on motion of Senator Cowell, the senate bill was substituted. The house bill carries $551,297 while the senate measure carries $1,210,787.

The Stamp incident then came before the senate, when Senator Stamps sent up a motion asking that certain communications and statements submitted by Captain W. O. Stamps be printed in the journal. Objections were raised that the matter pertained to no business before the senate. A letter from Stamps to Governor Ferguson making serious charges against employees of the state railroad was one of the documents. There was much debate over the question of printing the communications in the journal. Senator King made a vigorous speech against the printing in the journal.

The senate refused to concur in the departmental bill of the house and asked for a free conference committee and Cowell, Gibson, Bailey and Harris, McCollum, King, were appointed on the part of the senate, and Dixon of Harris, Dove, Spencer, Grindstaff and Russell on the part of the house.

After repeated points of order and much wrangling, Senator Brelsford sent up a substitute for the Stamps motion to print the Stamps communications in the journal, the substitute being that the whole matter be referred to senate judiciary committee No. 1, with a request to consult with the attorney general and get his opinion as to the authority of Governor Ferguson to remove prison commissioners.

WHEN DINNER COMES

One Ought to Have a Good Appetite.

A good appetite is the best sauce. It goes a long way toward helping in the digestive process, and that is absolutely essential to health and strength. Many persons have found that Grape-Nuts food is not only nourishing but is a great appetizer, and children like the taste of it and grow strong and rosy from its use.

It is especially the food to make a weak stomach strong and create an appetite for dinner.

"I am 57 years old," writes a Tennessee grandmother, "and have had a weak stomach from childhood. By great care as to my diet I enjoyed a reasonable degree of health, but never found anything to equal Grape-Nuts as a standby.

"When I have no appetite for breakfast, and just eat to keep up my strength, I take 4 teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts with good rich milk, and when dinner comes I am hungry. While if I go without any breakfast, I never feel like eating dinner. Grape-Nuts for breakfast seems to make a healthy appetite for dinner.

"My little grandson was sick with stomach trouble during the past summer and finally we put him on Grape-Nuts. Now he is growing plump and well. When asked if he wants his nurse or Grape-Nuts he brightens up and points to the cupboard. He was no trouble to wean at all—thanks to Grape-Nuts."

In a communication Captain Stamps defied the governor to send up for confirmation to the senate, his (Stamps) successor.

In the House.

Speaker Woices today ruled in the house that the twenty-four hour rule which prohibits the consideration of bills within that period of final adjournment, was operative since 10 o'clock this morning. This caused a decided stir in the house, which means the death of a large number of measures, unless this rule is rescinded.

Representative Rowell offered a resolution that this house rule be suspended for the purpose of taking up the senate state normals bill. This caused much debate and finally the resolution was referred to the committee on rules.

Representative Black and others offered a concurrent resolution that the joint rules of the house and senate as to the consideration of measures within 24 hours of final adjournment, be rescinded for the consideration of bills already engrossed and now up for final passage. This resolution also caused much debate and by a vote of 67 to 42 was referred also to the committee on rules.

By a vote of 62 to 39 the house today adopted a concurrent resolution offered by Representatives McFarland, Bryan and others that the legislature of Texas urge upon the federal government in the strongest terms the imperative necessity of immediately extending and regularly maintaining its Rio Grande border patrol service for the protection of the lives of American citizens. It is pointed out by the resolution that notwithstanding the fact that the state of Texas "has increased its state ranger service, the loss of lives of our citizens continues." This resolution was inspired by the recent killing of rangers near Pilares.

The chicken salad and punch episode came to the surface when a resolution offered by Representative Maddox and others was adopted providing for the appointment by the speaker of a committee of three members to check up the items in the comptroller's department, showing expenses on the governor's mansion and grounds and expenses of the family of former Governor Colquitt, and that the committee be required to report before the close of the present session of the legislature. It is pointed out that this investigation should be made in justice to the former governor.

A resolution was offered that the speaker of the house appoint a commission consisting of three members of the house to be known as the Texas Industrial commission and having for its purpose the studying of industrial conditions among the farmers and wage earners of Texas. The time for the consideration of resolutions expired before action could be taken on the resolution.

A communication from Prison Commissioner W. O. Stamps, relative to his removal by the governor was presented to the house, but it was ordered filed with the clerk of the house, and not printed in the journal.

Good Crops at Chilton.

Marlin, Tex., May 27.—J. A. Eaves of Chilton came in today on business and reports that the grain crop in his section is in fine condition. He says the general crops in that section never looked better at this time of the year and predicts a general crop of prosperity this fall. He says the rain was just what was needed.

Smallpox in Fort Worth Jail.

Fort Worth, Tex., May 27.—The breaking out of smallpox in the county jail has disrupted the criminal courts. No negroes are allowed to be brought into the court room for trial and juries have been dismissed by the judges. This is the third out-break of the disease in the jail recently. The jail has been condemned and pronounced insanitary, but efforts to vote bond issues for a new jail have been defeated twice.

FEDERAL COMMISSION ENDS ITS HEARINGS

CONCLUDES WORK THAT HAS LASTED A YEAR—TOUCHES
ALL PHASES.

Last Session Is Devoted to Hearing Witnesses Who Had Asked to Be Heard.

Washington, May 27.—The federal industrial relations commission today concluded hearings which have been in progress for more than a year, which have touched every phase of the country's industrial life and which have taken the investigators from coast to coast. Chairman Walsh adjourned the commission sine die and it will meet again in executive session in Chicago about June 1 to plan the framing of its report to congress.

Today's session was devoted to hearing witnesses who had asked for opportunity to reply to others who had already testified.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was recalled to allow him to answer criticisms of organized labor and himself. He recited his experiences as a "victim of attempts to restrict the rights of free speech and free press" and reviewed his difficulties in the federal courts regarding injunctions and contempt.

"I have maintained," he said, "that when any court shall try by injunction to deny me the right of free speech and of free press, I propose to exercise my constitutional rights, the injunction of the courts to the contrary notwithstanding."

Mr. Gompers took issue with witnesses who held the Clayton anti-trust act did not improve the position of labor before the courts.

"The Clayton act," Mr. Gompers said, "takes the voluntary associations of workers out from under the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law where they were placed by misinterpretation of that law by the courts. It is a charter of industrial freedom."

BAYLOR STUDENTS ELECT OFFICERS

J. D. ISAACKS CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF ASSOCIATION FOR COMING YEAR.

Seventy-three "B's" Confirmed and Managers Named for Various Teams.

Closing the first year under student self government, the final mass meeting of Baylor students for the session was held for the election of officers, the awarding of "Varsity" "B's" and miscellaneous business in Carroll chapel last night. J. D. Isaacks of Cleveland, Texas, a member of the junior class, was chosen as president of the student association for next year. Frank Soape of Henderson was elected vice president of the association and Miss Genevieve Warren of Palestine secretary.

Letters to 73 students for baseball, track, journalism, and other sports, gymnastics were confirmed by the students. The letters were first recommended by the captains, editors or oratorical committee, then passed by the students' executive committee and confirmed by the association.

Student managers for the executive seasons next year were elected as follows: Baseball, A. L. Mitchell, manager; Harold Walker, assistant manager; track manager, Roy M. Porter; basketball manager, H. G. Kennedy; tennis manager, H. G. Moore.

Isaacks, who will head the students' association for 1915-16, is one of the most popular students of the year, having been captain of the football team, track star, member of the chess club, staff member of The Lariat and a committeeman of the executive board of the student association.

Members of the Working Boys' club heard an interesting description of the more important cities of Italy that came into the limelight as a result of Italy's declaration of war upon Austria at the hands of Dr. I. L. McGlasson last night.

Dr. McGlasson, who is passing through the mountains that separate Italy from the European countries to the north of her proved very interesting. Dr. McGlasson gave the boys an idea of the causes that led up to the Italy's taking in the war and urged upon them a study of the entire history of that very interesting country.

Bryan Kyser favored the club with several vocal solos, being accompanied on the piano by his mother, Mrs. J. C. F. Kyser.

Sentence Day in Fifty-fourth Court

Sixteen men and one woman, convicted of various crimes during the present year, were formally sentenced yesterday by Judge Richard L. Munroe. CITY NEWS BRIEFS

R. C. Crane of Sweetwater, postmaster at that place, who has been in attendance upon the convention here, is a son of the late Dr. Wilbert E. May, one-time president of Baylor university. The Sweetwater man is an alumnus of Baylor, having graduated in 1883.

Postmaster W. H. Hoffmann of this city and J. E. Shuman of Sherman enjoyed the distinction of being the only two hold-over postmasters from the Taft administration in attendance upon the postmasters' convention. Mr. Hoffmann's term expires next December, and that of Mr. Muehert late in the summer. There are but a few other republican postmasters in the state who have not yet given way to democratic successors, but the number is growing smaller all the time.

City Commission to Take Up Health Propositions Today

Two reports of Public Health Commissioner W. H. Cockcroft will perhaps occupy most of the time of the city commission in its meeting this afternoon. At the last meeting the complaint of a committee of ladies representing the Hebrew Rest, First Street and Odd Fellows' cemeteries that packing houses and slaughter pens near the cemeteries had become a nuisance and a menace to health was referred to Mr. Cockcroft's department, with instructions to enforce the sanitary ordinances of the city.

An ordinance prohibits maintaining packing houses and slaughter pens within the city limits, in spite of which there are several more or less well equipped establishments. Any attempt to elect them from the city would meet with opposition that would probably force a test case through the higher courts. Mr. Cockcroft's report on this matter is being awaited with a great deal of interest.

Progress of the efforts of the department to enforce the sanitary ordinance requiring a license fee to be paid by owners of surface closets will be reported by Commissioner Cockcroft. At the last meeting of the commission several owners of rent houses in sections of the city not served by sewers asked the lawmakers to repeal the ordinance, representing that it had not been enforced and that the city was losing money in operating wagons to clean surface closets once a month. Commissioner Richards favored repealing the ordinance, declaring that the loss of money should be stopped. Other commissioners declared that the non-enforcement of the ordinance was the fault of the sanitary officer. Mayor Riggins stated that the ordinance could be enforced and gave orders to the sanitary officer to this effect. Commissioner Cockcroft asked to be allowed another week to complete the tabulation of the reports of the special inspectors employed by the department.

Other matters of routine nature will be considered by the commissioners.

Thirty-nine Civil Cases at Marlin

Marlin, Tex., May 27.—Thirty-nine civil cases, exclusive of over 100 back tax and divorce cases, have been filed in the local district clerk's office for trial during the June term of court, which will convene here Monday, June 7, with Judge Munroe of Waco presiding. This is considered to be much over the average of such suits filed today was the last day on which suits might be filed to receive service for this term of court.

The world has known what Cottolene is for over a quarter of a century

Cottolene established a class of its own over a generation ago. Cottolene was in the front rank of the great movement for bettering household service and for improving food products.

Its manufacture and its constituents are as well known as the simplest things done in every kitchen.

Cottolene

The cottonseed oil in Cottolene is pressed from selected seed—it is a grade so choice that it is not listed on the market. It is purer, sweeter and better in food value than most salad oils. The beef stearine is the product of the finest leaf beef suet known.

It is the exact combination of these two fats which gave Cottolene its high place over a quarter of a century ago, and which has held this place for it.

Cottolene is economical, but better than that it actually improves the quality and flavor of all foods cooked with it.

Your grocer has Cottolene now

DON'T WASH YOUR HAIR WITH SOAP

When you wash your hair don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply massage the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and easily and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

GERMAN SUBMARINE SINKS BRITISH SHIP; MOST OF CREW SAVED

of their operations against the Turks on the Gallipoli peninsula. During the armistice which the Turks asked for, they buried many more than 2,000 dead, while the British gathered up no less than 12,000 Turkish rifles—proof that the Turkish losses have been extremely heavy.

These losses were sustained in terrific counter attacks delivered against the positions which the allies had strongly fortified. The Turks came under the fire of the ships at the same time. The repulse of these counter attacks and the carrying out of attacks by the allies themselves have resulted in considerable losses on the allied side, to which must now be added the losses sustained by the sinking of the battleships Triumph and Majestic.

The Italians continue their offensive on the frontiers of Tyrol, the Trentino and Istria and have taken the chain of important positions, but they have not yet come into contact with the main Austria forces which are waiting for them behind entrenchments.

David Lloyd-George today took charge of the department of the war office, having to do with the supply of munitions, and with the aid of a strong committee immediately began to organize the factories with a view to increasing greatly the supplies.

Italians Bring Down Aeroplane.

At the Italian Front, Friuli, May 26, via Paris, May 27.—Italian gunners today brought down an Austrian aeroplane in the first contest in the campaign between aeroplanes and aeroplane guns. The second shot fired, struck fairly, causing flames to burst from the motor. The aeroplane plunged downward and was splintered on the rocks.

This was one of the incidents attending the opening of the Austro-Italian campaign as witnessed by a correspondent of the Associated Press. Along this part of the front where the Austrians are advancing in the direction of Trieste, there are scenes although as yet there has been little heavy fighting.

The correspondent was permitted to go close enough to the front to see a panoramic view of the section of the fighting line.

At Palmanova the people of the village were watching the spectacle of cavalry charges and artillery action over the front.

It is a picturesque region of green hills and quaint villages among which winds, dusty, white roads.

First Shot of War.

The first shot of the war was fired by a frontier guard at Bellacqua, who having seen in the semi darkness a shadowy figure approaching, shot dead an Austrian soldier who was attempting to fire a mine. With the sunrise artillery fire opened from the direction of Civitavecchia and the Austrians sprang to the attack, fording the Idria, swarming across the bridges and climbing to high ground.

From time to time tremendous explosions were heard above the roar of artillery. They marked the firing of mines by means of which the Austrians were blowing up their bridges as they fell back. The Austrians made little attempt to halt the Italian advance although elaborate defensive preparations had been made along the border. Railway lines were obstructed by heavy barbed wire and the tracks and fastened down with chains. The roads were blocked with trenches, trees and wire entanglements.

Brazzano is the first Italian town on Austrian soil where the Italian flag was flown. It was run up on the belfry of the village church.

At San Giovanni, Mazano, the correspondent saw the first of the Italian wounded and also the first Austrian prisoner captured, a member of the Landstrum from Friuli. As he was brought into the Italian lines he kept repeating "I am an Italian."

All along this section of the front there were signs of war. Roads were filled with long lines of transports and Red Cross automobiles. Everywhere battalions of soldiers were to be seen, both on the San between Przemysl and the Lubaczowka river, as well as between Przemysl and the great marshes of the Dniester.

The Russians claim to have inflicted enormous losses upon their Austrian opponents on the 25th on the entire front from the Dniester marshes to Dolina. The capture is claimed of many prisoners during counter attacks.

Origin of Use of Gas.

Petrograd, via London, May 28, 5:12 a. m.—Use by the Teutonic allies of gas against the Russian army in the offensive in the Osowetz region is reported in an original statement issued last night by the Russian general staff.

Austro-German attacks along the line between the upper Vistula and the left bank of the San are reported to have been repulsed, with heavy losses to the attackers. A very stubborn battle is said to be continuing on both banks of the San between Przemysl and the Lubaczowka river, as well as between Przemysl and the great marshes of the Dniester.

The Russians claim to have inflicted enormous losses upon their Austrian opponents on the 25th on the entire front from the Dniester marshes to Dolina. The capture is claimed of many prisoners during counter attacks.

DEATH LIST GROWS FROM STORM WHICH SWEEP TWO STATES

In the river valleys of the storm-swept district have been covered by the flood waters.

At Fort Scott, Kansas, the Marmaton river flooded north Fort Scott and at Parsons the Labette overflowed the lower part of the city.

With rains continuing throughout most of the Missouri river and Kansas river valleys and more predicted for tomorrow, P. Connor, government weather observer here, announced tonight that a flood rivaling that of 1903 is possible in Kansas City before the enormous quantity of water is drained.

Late tonight the Kansas river began backing water into the lower sections of the Argentine district of Kansas City, Kansas, a district which has suffered seriously in flood times. Several families were forced to leave their homes and many others moved their belongings to upper floors.

Both the Missouri and Kansas rivers are rising steadily. The Missouri is less than two feet below flood stage at which height it begins backing the water up in the Kansas. The total rainfall for this vicinity in 24 hours was 3.16 inches.

"It looks dangerous," Mr. Connor announced tonight. "If two or three inches of rain falls within the next 24 hours there will be a flood sure."

Turkey creek and Blue river, the two city streams which gave the first flood scare following the recent rains receded late tonight.

Joseph Perry, 21 years old, was drowned at Platt City, Mo., tonight when in a wagon he attempted to cross the Platte river where it had overflowed.

Arkansas Rising.—Tulsa, Ok., May 27.—Another heavy rain this afternoon set the Arkansas river booming again at this point. Reports tonight from the north indicate another rise in the river which is now more than fourteen feet above normal.

W. W. Wood, an oil field worker, was killed at Manford today by lightning, and two others were believed to be fatally injured.

Trains are moving on delayed schedules.

Fair Weather Predicted.—Washington, May 27.—Generally fair weather with rising temperatures is following the cold wave and killing frosts which swept down from the upper Canadian provinces last night, causing damage in the agricultural districts along the Great Lakes through northern and western Pennsylvania and New York.

Forecasters at the weather bureau said tonight the territory affected by the wave probably would have light frost tonight, but that warmer weather would follow.

Flush Your Blood Get it Cleansed

Remarkable Remedy That Works All Through Your Body.

When you put a tablespoonful of S. S. S. into your stomach it gets straight into your blood. In less than five minutes it has become a wave of restorative influence wherever the blood has circulated. Does this read like magic? But it is absolutely true. Those powerful digestive juices in the stomach can not change the medicinal effect of S. S. S. The liver can not burn it. The lungs, skin and kidneys excrete it only after S. S. S. has set in motion millions of cells and nerves to throw off the countless germs that have infested every part of the body. And as S. S. S. continues to battle those troublesome pests that gather in the form of pimples, boils, eczema, acne, catarrh, rheumatism and other so-called blood disorders, it rouses into action a myriad of strange but well-understood corpuscles called leucocytes that actually devour or change or convert disease germs so they are readily and quickly cast out of the body. It is probably the best appreciated blood medicine known. You will find S. S. S. on sale in nearly every drug store in the U. S. Get a bottle today. And if your case is peculiar, write to the Medical Department, The Swift Specific Co., 105 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is conducted by a noted physician.

HALF SUBMARINES OF THE U. S. INEFFECTIVE

SECRETARY DANIELS DISCUSSES BREAKDOWNS IN WAR GAME.

OF TWELVE BUT ONE IN SHAPE

Others Were in Trouble and Repairs
Were Constantly Necessary.

Washington, May 27.—With unofficial reports indicating that half of the twelve submarines assigned to participate in the war game with the Atlantic fleet were at least partially ineffective, Secretary Daniels today announced his determination to make a thorough investigation to find the cause of, and, if possible, a remedy for the too frequent breakdowns of the navy's underwater craft.

"With the growing importance of the submarine as an instrument of warfare," said the secretary, "I feel that too much attention cannot be paid to this branch of the service and every effort will be directed to improving them. The submarine is still in an experimental stage and the boat of two years ago as compared with those now in active service abroad is probably even more comparatively obsolete than any automobile of three years ago."

"Of the twelve submarines which came to New York for the maneuvers, one was able to proceed; the various others suffered from breakdowns, necessitating repairs which took them out of the game for varying lengths of time. Reports, unofficial, give a number varying from five to seven as the total submarines effective during the certain period of the maneuvers."

"The machinery of a submarine is very delicate. The battery trouble, as already announced, we hope to have eliminated in our new boats if the Edison battery lives up to its preliminary tests. The other troubles are being eliminated with each new design."

"In some cases the breakdowns are probably due to imperfect design, owing to the lack of data at the time the boats were built."

"Meanwhile, the plans for the twenty-six new submarines authorized by the Sixty-third congress are being pushed."

"It must not be forgotten that all of the submarines which have been in trouble recently were designed before 1912. The newer boats both bearing completion and about to be begun are believed to be vast improvements on the old models and it is thought that the greater part of previous weaknesses have been eliminated."

Charge Conspiracy in False Manifest in Rubber Exports

New York, May 27.—A conspiracy to defraud the United States through the filing of a false manifest on exports of rubber, in order to conceal its contraband character, is alleged in indictments found by the federal grand jury today against Harry Salomon and his cousin, Albert Salomon, of the large importing and exporting firm of Salomon Brothers of this city; Albert N. Newman, a commission merchant; Franz Rosenberg of Hanover, Germany, representatives here of an Austrian rubber company, and Sigmond Karman of Budapest, Hungary, a rubber expert who is also said to be in this city.

Two shipments of a fine grade of rubber valued at $50,000 were alleged to have been found concealed, one in 300 barrels of resin, and the other in 178 barrels of cotton waste. The shipments were detected as the result of an X-ray examination.

While classed a technical violation of the customs laws, the acts charged are also considered by federal officials to be violations of American neutrality. According to government attorneys, Assistant District Attorney Wood, Harry Salomon was abroad when a German army reservist, answered the call to the colors. In the course of a few months, it is stated, he was made a lieutenant so as to organize the rubber contraband conspiracy. According to Mr. Wood, he was given a furlough and came to this country, where he established a rubber smelting plant at Green Point. L. I. Salomon and his associates, it is stated, were well supplied with money.

Counsel for the defendants issued a statement that in shipping the rubber as they did the defendants were trying to "circumvent the enemy, and had not in view a violation of any statute."

CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK, UGH!

"DODSON'S LIVER TONE" BETTER THAN CALOMEL AND CANNOT SALIVATE.

Calomel does you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quick-silver. Calomel is dangerous. It attacks the bowels and causes cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your drug-gist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and cannot salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day. It does you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

CAPTAIN DECLARES TORPEDO STRUCK THE STEAMER NEBRASKAN

in the present war have been laid for offensive or defensive purposes.

Bulkhead Saves Ship.—Liverpool, May 27.—Below the water line of the Nebraska the bottom had been torn away and standing beside the forechute way one looked down at the water which had risen almost to the coaming. The ship was saved from sinking by the strength of her No. 2 bulkhead, which held back the flood and buoyed up the ship. Considerable damage was done to the deck and fittings. The steamer's derricks were blown away by the force of the explosion.

Captain Greene of New York, captain of the Nebraska, told this story of the damage to his ship: "We left Liverpool Monday. The next night, forty-eight miles off Fastnet, at 8:24 o'clock, we were torpedoed. Only ten minutes before we had hauled down the American flag, but it was quite light and the submarine must have seen the big white lettering on our sides, which read, 'Nebraska of New York'."

"I was below at the time. There was a terrible shock, which threw everybody aboard off their feet. Immediately afterward came a tremendous explosion which slightly injured two quartermasters and the boatswain, buried the derricks thirty feet high and blew up the hatches."

"The ship rapidly filled with water and the crew held on and tried to settle. We thought the ship was lost and got into our four lifeboats. Two armed British vessels came up in reply to our distress signals."

"As the vessel still floated we were returned on board and made a more careful examination. We found the No. 2 bulkhead holding firm and decided to remain aboard and try to bring the ship into Liverpool under her own steam, which we accomplished successfully."

450 Men of Crew of Triumph Saved

London, May 28, 2:58 a. m.—A dispatch to the Times from its Madrid correspondent says that 450 men of the crew of the British battleship Triumph which was sunk Wednesday by a submarine in the Gulf of Saros were saved.

The officers and crew on board the Triumph in peace times numbered about 700 men.

Twenty Men Perish in Gas Explosion

Nanaimo, B. C., May 27.—Twenty-two men are believed to have perished as a result of a gas explosion late today in the Reserve mine of the Western Fuel company here. Three bodies had been recovered tonight and it was thought that there was hope for nineteen others still missing in the workings. Thirteen were brought out alive shortly after the explosion occurred.

WOULD MAKE MARKET BILLS OF EXCHANGE

PLAN IS DISCUSSED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF U. S. AND CHILE.

WOULD FACILITATE BUSINESS

To Be Drawn on American Banks and Made Payable in Dollars.

Washington, May 27.—A definite plan for the creation of a market for bills of exchange drawn on banks in the United States and payable in dollars was presented today at the conference between representatives of the business and financial interests of the United States and the Chilean delegation attending the Pan-American financial conference.

It was said tonight that the Guggenheim copper interests, the Bethlehem Steel company and the Dupont Powder company, all of which have large interests in Chile, are back of the plan, which would involve the exchange aggregating at least $20,000,000 a year. Representatives of the United States on the conference group were told that Chile exacted an export duty on nitrate and had provided that 90-day bills of exchange on London payable in pounds sterling should be practically legal tender in the payment of these duties and for other purposes. It was suggested that a law be enacted to make bills drawn on banks in the United States legal tender to the same extent, to facilitate the business of the interests in the United States which spend millions each year in wages and in purchases in Chile.

The Chileans promised to urge their government to take the steps necessary. Later it was said the same proposal will be made to other South American countries.

It became apparent today that several of the South American nations intend to make a vigorous effort to have some concrete plan for improvement of steamship facilities submitted to the conference before adjournment Saturday. Several of the countries have declared themselves in favor of encouragement to shipbuilders either by direct or indirect subsidies. The Argentine delegation is anxious that at least the United States, Brazil and Argentina as governments or through private capital take action to assure that that the future will not see a repetition of conditions that arose in the shipping world after the European war began.

Some of the South Americans probably will remain in the United States after the conference closes in the hope of enlisting capital or of making other arrangements that will assure the establishment of steamship lines.

The test of the good that the present Pan-American financial conference has done will not come for a year, according to Joseph E. Davies, director general of the Pan-American Union, a speaker today at a general session of the conference.

"If," said Mr. Barrett, "there is a silver lining to the war cloud, it is the development of Pan-American solidarity. Since the outbreak of the Monroe Doctrine in 1823, nothing has done more to awaken North and South America to a true appreciation of their common interests."

"The success of this conference will be the actual good it accomplished for every republic participating. It would seem proper for the members not to cease their endeavors until there has been practical confirmation of the undertakings they initiate in the form of resolutions and recommendations."

Genius Europe Addressed to War.—The genius of Europe is addressed to war; the spirit of the Americas is turned toward peace. This council of Americas is held to marshal the great forces of peace into conditions that make for mutual helpfulness.

This was the keynote of a speech today before the Pan-American financial conference by Joseph E. Davies, chairman of the federal trade commission.

"It is suggestive of great promise,"

German Casualties 106,000.—London, May 28, 3:32 a. m.—The Times' Petrograd correspondent says he hears that the German casualties in the West Galicia drive total 106,000.

An army organ in Petrograd, the correspondent adds, declares that Prince Joachim, a son of Emperor William and the Prince of Lippe, narrowly escaped capture on the northern front when the Russians suddenly stormed the Kurzany position with the bayonet. The prince, it is asserted, fled to their staff in the rear of the position.

Holland Makes Protest.—London, May 27.—Reuter's correspondent at The Hague says it is semi-officially stated there that the Dutch government has instructed its ministers in Berlin to lodge a protest against the attack on the Dutch steam trawler Gravenhage by a German aeroplane off Ameland, a Dutch island in the North Sea.

the portrait of Miss Nellie Mullens. In appreciation of her sympathy and inspiration as a teacher, but more especially in appreciation of her sincerity and nobility of character, we, the class of nineteen hundred fifteen, respectfully dedicate this issue of the Daisy Chain Annual.

After all that has been said in advance, Winston Churchill's new book, "A Far Country," will not be in circulation before early June. The foundation of this strong story is like unto the prodigal son. "And he took his journey into a far country and there he wasted his substance in riotous living." As "The Inside of the Cup" was designed to expose shams in religious practice, so "A Far Country" will treat social evils in general.

Should the shades of our grandmothers return, the poor creatures could not find themselves within their own stately Colonial homes; for the parlor is long since absorbed by the living room; the bed room has given way to the sleeping porch, and now it comes that the reception hall is no more. Never be so out of fashion as to refer to that again; say rather "the foyer," for we are borrowing this term from our theater.

Now with our bright boys and girls laying aside school books, why not some so into research sufficient to let us know what about all that variety in spelling our home town. We have it "Wahco" and "Waco" and "Huaco" and "Huaco." Since folk lore is such a popular subject and since your Indian origin has given us such a rich folk lore legacy, why not once and for all settle the spelling and the pronunciation of the name and the tribe from which we come to be.

AT THE TEMPLE.

Services tonight at 8 o'clock. It is always a pleasure to hear Mr. James or Miss Thurman sing a solo. At this service the congregation will enjoy the rare treat of hearing the two splendid voices blended into the sweet song "Meekly May My Soul Receive." The attendance last Friday night was more than satisfactory. Let's hope for the same tonight. The sermon by Rabbi I. Warsaw will be based on the poem, "The Joy of Sorrow." It will be a brief, yet searching statement of the problem of suffering, and how a sacred joy can be distilled from a hallowed sorrow.

The Saturday morning services at 10:30. Religious school on Sunday morning at 10.

Dance Revue Will Be Held at Sundown at Cameron Park

Wednesday night's rain and hail made impracticable the holding of the dance revue at Cameron park last night, causing postponement until tonight. The celebration is scheduled to begin at sundown, which is about 7 o'clock. The program in yesterday's Morning News will be carried out. Alessandro's band will assist the Misses Hoffmann, by whom the celebration was arranged. It is expected that a similar event each year will commemorate the anniversaries of the dedication of Cameron park.

Gus Edwards' Kids at Cozy Next Week

Gus Edwards and his school kids, one of the most celebrated of amusement organizations, will be at the Cozy theatre three days, June 2, 3 and 4. Thirty-five beautiful young women who make up the company dress the part of school boys and girls, and on some high-class comedy. Mr. Edwards and his girls are now completing a long engagement at the Hancock opera house in Austin. At noon today the troupe will be guests of the Austin Rotary club in their weekly luncheon at the Driskill hotel.

Louis L. Durr died at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Curtis & Witte sanitarium from a bullet wound in the head, self-inflicted, after he had shot his wife, Mrs. Katherine Rydus Durr, through the heart at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Durr died shortly after the shooting in her room at 926 Washington street, where the shooting occurred. The body of Mrs. Durr is in charge of L. C. Puckett, undertaker, funeral arrangements having been deferred until the arrival this morning of her sister, Miss Hazel Rydus of San Antonio. Undertaker F. M. Compton took charge of Durr's body yesterday afternoon. Durr, a brother of the dead man was expected to arrive at 5 o'clock this morning from Galveston to make arrangements for burial. The body will probably be shipped at 1:30, to Galveston, where the mother of the dead man lives.

Durr arrived in Waco Wednesday afternoon, coming from Galveston where he had been visiting his mother for several weeks. Mrs. Durr obtained a divorce in the Fifty-fourth district court last week, her husband signing a waiver when the paper were served on him at Galveston. Durr registered at the Riggins hotel under the name of A. B. Parr, St. Louis, Mo., and was assigned to room 401 on the fourth floor of the hotel. The real Mr. Parr was an old friend of Mrs. Durr. About 8 o'clock Wednesday night, some one called over the phone from the Riggins hotel for Mrs. Durr, giving the name of Mr. Parr. Leaving word for her to meet him at the Riggins, and saying that a cab would come for her. Shortly afterward a cab stopped at the house, but the driver called for another person, not known to those who resided there. About 11 o'clock last night Mrs. Durr was again called on the telephone, and requested to meet Mr. Parr at the Riggins. The caller said she would not come to the Riggins to meet Mr. Parr, but that she would be glad to talk to him over the phone. The caller then asked her to come to the hotel the next morning.

About 10 o'clock this morning a person giving his name as "Mr. Hamilton" called for Mrs. Durr over the phone, and said Mr. Parr wished her to meet him at the hotel. By this time Mrs. Durr had become suspicious that the mysterious "Mr. Parr" was her former husband, and she would have nothing to do with him. About ten minutes later Durr came to the house, entered his wife's room and shot her without a word. The first shot went through the center of the forehead. Mrs. Durr died within a few minutes. Durr was taken by the police ambulance to the Curtis & Witte sanitarium. Officers Butler and Craven answered the call, where he died at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The register at the Riggins hotel shows the name of "A. B. Parr" registered Wednesday night. The book of the hotel shows that two telephone calls went from "Parr's" room Wednesday night to some place in the city outside of the hotel. For such calls a charge of five cents is made.

At the hotel last night it was denied that the clerk had called Mrs. Durr, or had sent a cab after her to bring her to the hotel. The first man who called on Washington street it was said that the telephone caller Wednesday night claimed to be the clerk at the Riggins. A bell boy at the Riggins last night admitted ordering the cab from the Metropole cab stand about 8 o'clock Wednesday night. The boy said that the man in room 401 had given another bell boy fifty cents to pay for the cab. This boy asked the other bellboy to call the cab.

The maid on the fourth floor of the Riggins said that Durr went and tore his hair all morning yesterday. She said he called her and asked her to clean up his room early. He then pulled down all the window shades, and asked the maid to tell any person who might call to see him that he was not in, but to show the visitor into the room where he was. The maid refused to do this, and did not return to the floor that morning.

Written on a fly leaf torn from a book which K. P. Lodge at Cameron be that the K. P. Lodge at Cameron be notified, was found in Durr's pocket. The chancellor commander of the Cameron lodge wired K. P. Lodge, commander of the local K. P. Lodge, to take charge of the body.

Durr and Mrs. Durr moved to Waco last February, Durr engaging in the cotton business. He had formerly lived and worked at Galveston, where his mother lives. His father, John Durr, was a cotton man of Montgomery, Ala. Durr was 39 years old. Mrs. Durr 25. Previously to coming to Waco, Mrs. Durr had conducted a millinery store at Boerne, Tex. Mrs. Durr's parents live at Hattiesburg, Miss.

Newspapers Thanked by Postmaster for Convention Stories

Postmaster W. H. Hoffmann has written the following letter of appreciation to the Morning News for the manner in which the Postmasters' convention, just ended, was handled.

"To the Editor Waco Morning News, 'Waco, Texas.' 'Dear Sir: I wish to express to you my personal appreciation for the liberal manner in which you handled the Postmasters' convention which has just adjourned. I heard many flattering comments on the write-ups of the convention by our local papers, and I am sure all the postmasters would join me in expressing the appreciation which I have just mentioned.'"

Negro With Gun Arrested. Ed Randle, negro, was placed in the county jail yesterday afternoon on a charge of assault to murder. His wife, Callie Randle, informed Sheriff S. S. Fleming that her husband was watching for her with a shotgun, and had threatened to kill her. Sheriff Fleming and Deputy Sheriff Lee Jenkins went to the end of South Third street, where they found him, with his gun nearby.

The students of the high school are actively engaged in the dignities of being seniors and are going through the final processes of their school work in standing the final examinations. With these keeping them employed and with practicing for their graduation exercises to be given June 3 and the other features that compose the senior year, they have not any too much time. A picture of the class was taken yesterday afternoon by F. A. Gildersleeve.

Active work in rehearsing for the graduation night has been started and a good, live program has been arranged for the entertainment of the friends and patrons of the high school and those taking part on the program that night are to be congratulated.

So far the class will be something over one hundred, composed of the midyear and the regular spring term, though it may be lessened some by failure to pass the final examination.

The graduating exercises will be given in the Auditorium building on Thursday, June 3, and will be composed of numbers in music, chorus, and the class poem, as well as the addresses.

Following is the program as arranged:

Invocation, Rabbi S. Levy. Chorus, "Estudiantina," class. Salutatory, Louise Leavelle. Class poem, Adrienne Wilkes. Violin solo, Clara Louise Bruel. Reading, Marian Renick. Girls' chorus, "School Days," Ina Board, Alice Cox, Flora Edmond, Leah Friedman, Bess Herrick, Beuna Lagow, Erin McDaniel, Fidelity Miller, Carrie Morgan, Marian Renick, Aletha Sleeper, Marian Stanford, Louey Tyler, Adrienne Wilkes. Vaudeville, Pearl Parker. Chorus, "Our Old High," class. Presentation of diplomas, W. E. Darden. Benediction, Father E. A. Kelly.

Houston Doctor Has Narrow Escape From a Loosened Stone

Houston, Tex., May 27.—During an electrical display today a stone was loosened by lightning at the highest corner of the eight-story Kress building. It crashed to the street, almost completely wrecking an automobile in which Dr. James A. Hill was seated, but he was uninjured.

But Two Men Killed by Mexican Bandits

Austin, Tex., May 27.—Adjutant General Hutchings today received a telegram from Captain Monroe Fox of the state ranger forces advising that he had reached Marfa. Fox confirms the report that only two men were killed, Rangers Hulem and Sitters. General Hutchings immediately wired Fox to ascertain the exact condition of Ranger Bates, who was at first reported dead. Later a message was received from him indicating he was alive. General Hutchings wants to know whether Bates was injured or not. Fox also advised that the body of Hulem was so badly shot to pieces that it would be almost impossible to ship it to Gainesville. An effort, however, is being made to have the body sent to Gainesville.

WHAT $10 DID FOR THIS WOMAN

The Price She Paid for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Which Brought Good Health.

Danville, Va.—"I have only spent ten dollars on your medicine and I feel so much better than I did when the doctor was treating me. I don't suffer any bearing down pains at all now and sleep well. I cannot say enough for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills as they have done so much for me. I am enjoying good health now and owe it all to your remedies. I take pleasure in telling my friends and neighbors about them."—Mrs. MATTIE HALEY, 501 Colquhoun Street, Danville, Va.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

"The Failure"

A photo play—full of real human interest and rich sentiment. A drama of newspaper and theatrical life—superbly staged and acted—with John Emerson as the star.

HIPODROME.

"The Failure."

In "The Failure," Mutual master picture with John Emerson, Olga Gray and Sam de Grasse, showing at the Hippodrome today and tomorrow, scenes showing the aspect of the stage when a rehearsal is in progress and later during the course of a regular performance before a large audience are staged by special permission obtained by the management of the Bert Lythe theatre in Los Angeles and a great number of studio lights were taken to the theatre and John Emerson rehearsed the act the players were going to act on the stage.

When all was in readiness, the curtain was raised and the lights turned on and the audience, who had come to see the regular performance, sat up with astonishment, not knowing that they were to take part in a motion picture. Director William Christy Cabanne then stepped to the front of the stage and explained to the members of the audience that they were about to become motion picture actors. He asked them all in the making of a scene and proceeded to direct the whole. Olga Gray, just as he would have done in his own studio with his own players.

The result shows the 1,400 members of the audience at the Republic theatre enthusiastic over that part of the production.

A lion's share of the credit, it is said, attributed to the success of "The Failure" is due to the author and producer, Cabanne. The method he employed to rehearse the act the players were to take part in a motion picture. Cabanne has been a student of Griffith for seven years.

For the presentation of some of the scenes in "The Failure" it is understood that the California state penitentiary was used as a setting. It is effort of this sort to secure realistic detail that makes for success.

Olga Gray has a strong role in the character of the actress-sweetheart of the young playwright. A. D. Sears, as the corrupt theatrical manager, she builds a reputation for himself as this despised character in the new Mutual master pictures. He performs the type of theatrical manager that has luckily almost disappeared. He was the kind that never gave the girl a chance in any of his companies until she had yielded to his attentions.

The hero in this play exposed the character of Shuman, the manager, and was responsible for his temporary exile. In the end Shuman avenged himself and had the playwright in prison. Later the playwright gets revenge in a most ingenious manner. In fact, it is one of the most novel climaxes shown in any feature.

Naval Review.

The Hippodrome, as usual first in everything in its line, will today and tomorrow show the big "Review of the Naval Fleet," and parade on the Hudson river, taken last Monday while being reviewed by President Wilson. This is a complete picture in one reel of 1,000 feet. President Wilson and 1,000,000 citizens watched the great fighting ships steam for the open sea and formed a splendid spectacle and a fitting climax to the joyous days spent as guests of New York. The nation's executive shows great interest in the submarine division of the navy. Secretary Daniels thanked the city. See President Wilson on the Mayflower being saluted by sixteen battleships, a division of eighteen destroyers, a submarine flotilla of sixteen and the auxiliary division of nine ships. The ships have had four months of continuous war drill off Guantanamo and when leaving the New York harbor presented a sight never before seen by the citizens of New York. This picture has been bought by the Hippodrome management at an enormous expense, shipped direct from New York, and this is the first showing in Texas.

Secretary Daniels paid a tribute to the behavior of the enlisted personnel and said there were very few if any liberty men who failed to report in time.

"I have just expressed," added the secretary, "to Acting Mayor McAneny and to the Butler Duncan, the chairman of the reception and entertainment committee, the appreciation of the navy and the fleet for the perfect carrying out of the best scheme of hospitality ever accorded the navy in its history."

Just before the fleet got under way Admiral Fletcher sent the following message by wireless to Rear Admiral

Review of Atlantic Fleet on Hudson

President Wilson and 1,000,000 citizens watch great fighting ships steam for open sea. This splendid spectacle a fitting climax to the ten joyous days spent as guests of New York. See President Wilson on the "Mayflower" and see each battleship salute of twenty-one guns in honor of the president. See the four destroyers, the "Jenkins," "Jervis," "Drayton" and "Paulding," near the "Mayflower" and "Dolphin," with Secretary Daniels and Secretary Redfield. See 11 German ships dip their flags in salute. The German ships "Vaterland" and "Kaiser Wilhelm II" were full dressed. See our Admiral Fletcher with the officers and crew on the dreadnought "New York." See our big battleships enter New York harbor, led by the dreadnought "Wyoming." If you are patriotic and want to see your own big naval fleet, see this picture here today and Saturday. Picture 1000 feet.

"The Jest of Jealousy," a two-part Selig drama, will be what the name indicates, a play of strong emotions and passions, giving an opportunity for superb acting well done by a company of Selig's best stars. The Nickel for the day is also playing for the benefit of the local Maccabee ladies, who have been on the street with tickets for several days and who will appreciate the patronage for the day, the proceeds going for some of their charity work.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by Powers-Kelly Drug Co. under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

WIN FIRST BY SCORE OF 4 TO 1 AND THE SECOND 6 TO 1.

SAGE AND OGLE ARE EFFECTIVE

Both Pitchers Given Good Support. Mullins Was Hit Freely in Second Contest.

Dallas, Tex., May 27.—Waco won both ends of a double-header from Dallas today, 4 to 1 and 6 to 1. By agreement the second game went seven rounds. Splendid pitching by Sage and Ogle, coupled with excellent support, was responsible for the victory. Goulait had only one bad inning in the first game. Mullins, who pitched the second game, was hit effectively by the visitors.

Panthers Come From Behind in 2 Games

Fort Worth, May 27.—Fort Worth came from behind in both games today and won, though out in both. The scores were 6 to 4 and 5 to 4. Nolly's wildness and an error gave Fort Worth four runs in one inning of the first game. Hunter tied the score in the second game by darning base running and the tenth Harper doubled. The scores:

MARKET REPORT

COTTON

New York, May 27.—An early decline was followed by a rally in the cotton market again today with the close steady at a net advance of 5 to 8 points.

The market opened barely steady at a decline of 6 to 9 points under practically the same influence as those responsible for yesterday's early decline. Cables were lower than here, there were foreign selling orders around the ring and local bears seemed to be encouraged by increasing confidence that the government report next week would show a favorable condition. The bulk of the offerings, however, appeared to come from houses with Liverpool connections, while at the decline to 5.59 for October contracts, there was a considerable realizing by recent sellers.

The official forecasts for unsettled conditions in the south with showers or lower temperatures in many sections probably inspired some of this buying, while there was also a disposition to even up scattered accounts for the approaching holidays. At any rate the market steadied around the opening figures, and the afternoon trading was about 7 to 8 points net higher during the afternoon. October contracts were 5.59, or about 15 points from the early low level. The close was a shade off from the best under realizing.

Liverpool will be closed for the balance of the week and it may be that extensions of south foreign offerings between now and Sunday were partly responsible for the advance. Houses with Liverpool connections were buyers, but general business continued very quiet, although there was somewhat less nervousness over political conditions owing to reassuring reports with reference to the Nebraska affair.

New Orleans.—New Orleans was depressed by the price of cotton 8 to 9 points in the early trading today as the market was overdone and quickly recovered the loss. In the afternoon it gained strength on the rumor that Turkey was applying for cotton contracts at 10 to 15 points above yesterday's final figures. The close was at a net gain of 4 to 6 points.

Heavy receipts in Louisiana and the great increase in the stock there resulting from seizures of American cotton and reports of labor troubles among Louisiana mills gave the local market an easy tone around the opening. Shorts, however, who tried to take profit on the decline of cotton for sale and bid prices up on themselves. While weather conditions over the belt were considered favorable for the whole drouth in Louisiana and too much rain in Oklahoma caused uneasiness and led to more or less buying.

Many shorts appeared to wait to even up because of the holidays in Liverpool tomorrow and Saturday, the holiday in New York being on Monday. The condition report of the season Thursday.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Coca-Cola

CHARACTER—Personality. When you meet a man, you instinctively catalog him—decide for yourself just what kind of a man he is and whether or not you're going to like him.

If he's wishy-washy, or overbearing, or bitter, or loud, or effeminate, or dull, or uninteresting, you're through, right there.

It is character that decides you. Beverages have character. Some can't outlast a single meeting.

Others are wishy-washy, effeminate and uninteresting. You forget them—quickly.

Others are overbearing—too decided in flavor or effect. You avoid them.

COCA-COLA has the character, the personality of a fine, wholesome, manly man. It meets the palates of men and women on this common ground.

It is pleasing without being effeminate. It is vigorous without overdoing it. It bears repetition without losing the freshness of appeal that first charmed you.

You—be you man or woman—meet in this beverage those qualities that are admirably manly in a man.

Instantly you will decide that you like it for its character—its personality. Time will prove the soundness of your judgment.

For 29 years COCA-COLA has been put to the test. Daily for 29 years it has passed the lips of the American people—has borne the test of repetition without losing its zest.

For 29 years it has proved its wholesomeness—its vigor—its deliciousness—its character.

You can prove to yourself in one glassful what 29 years have built into its reputation.

FORMER SECRETARY HEADS ASSOCIATION

A. N. JUSTISS OF CORSICANA IS ELECTED PRESIDENT AT CLOSING SESSION.

FT. WORTH GETS NEXT MEETING

Wilson Administration Indorsed and Resolutions Thanking Waco for Hospitality Passed.

Fort Worth was chosen as the 1916 meeting place for the Texas Postmasters' Association and the Texas Postmasters' League, at the final meeting of the association here yesterday. Orange received ten votes of the total of seventy-six, and Dallas one. One long session, beginning at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and continuing until past noon, completed the business of the association.

Postmaster A. N. Justiss, of Corsicana, formerly secretary-treasurer of the association, was elected president, and Shaw D. Ray of Winnsboro, formerly assistant secretary-treasurer, succeeded Mr. Justiss as secretary-treasurer. By vote Postmaster Ray was authorized to select his own assistant, other officers elected were: First vice president, A. H. Bule, Ennis; second vice president, J. J. Jenkins, Skidmore; fourth vice president, J. J. Ball, Orange; fifth vice president, Captain J. C. Morrow, Quah, W. E. Schubert of Lincoln, the biggest postmaster of them all, was selected as mascot for the association, a position created especially for his benefit. Mr. Schubert, 300 pounds, and is not more than five feet four. During the convention he was known to everyone as "Billy Bounce."

Fruit punch served in the corridor on the third floor of the federal building closed the entertainment of the visitors. Postmaster W. H. Hoffmann in a short speech thanked the postmasters for coming to Waco for the convention.

Resolutions indorsing the administration of President Wilson, Postmaster General Burleson, favoring good roads, deprecating the promotion system of electing officers of the association, and extending a vote of thanks to retiring officers, and persons in Waco who assisted in entertaining the convention were reported by the resolutions committee and adopted by the association. A resolution introduced by Postmaster Richards of Weatherford, which would suggest to the postmaster general a reduction in first class mail rates when the package exceeds eight ounces, aroused discussion both favorable and unfavorable, which was ended by Mr. Richards's motion to table the resolution.

Several Addresses Delivered.

Addresses were delivered yesterday by J. E. Muchant of Sherman, on "Business End of the Postoffice," by C. T. McConico of Kerens, on "Postoffice 1853 and 1915 in Rural District," by J. E. Woods of Teague on "Little Holes in a Big Business," and by A. N. Justiss of Corsicana on "Second and Fourth Class Mail Matter Benefits the Public." Letters of regret were read from Postmaster General Burleson and Mrs. Wheeler of Brownsville, who were unable to be present at the meeting. Mrs. Wheeler was the only woman whose name appeared on the program of the convention.

The finance committee reported a balance on hand of $49.75. Receipts for the year were reported as $203.30, with expenditures of $153.55. The report was accepted and the committee discharged.

A tribute to R. M. Hart, for seven years postmaster at Millsap, and who died Oct. 5, 1914, was contained in the report of the memorial committee. A symposium of the association was tendered the bereaved family.

Resolutions Adopted.

Following is the report of the resolutions committee adopted at the final session of the Texas Postmasters' association yesterday:

"We, your committee on resolutions, beg leave to report as follows:

"Resolved, first, That the members of this association heartily indorse the wise and statesmanlike administration of President Wilson and its efforts in behalf of peace and the maintenance of the dignity of this nation and the rights of its citizens.

"Resolved, second, That Postmaster General Burleson and his administration of the postoffice department in its trenchant and reforming efforts in making the department self-sustaining for the first time in its history, and in changing annual deficit into surpluses of more than $2,000,000 annually for the last two years, should be most heartily indorsed by all lovers of good government and especially the people of Texas; and the members of this association pledge their continued and hearty cooperation in furthering the efforts of his administration for efficiency and economy.

"Whereas, the lack of good roads in many counties in Texas is recognized as a most serious handicap to the efficiency of rural mail service; therefore, be it

"Resolved, third, That it is the sense of the association that every postmaster in Texas should most energetically lend his assistance to good roads movements in his community, and we as members of this association hereby pledge our individual efforts to such movements in our respective communities.

"Whereas, under other conditions there has grown up a usage in this association to promote and elect as president the secretary-treasurer after he has served in the latter office for one term; and

"Whereas, the wisdom of the continued practice of such a usage is open to question; and

"Whereas, the association should feel at perfect liberty, when it gets a good and efficient secretary-treasurer, to retain him in office; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, fourth, That this association and the members thereof shall be no longer under any obligation whatever to follow any such usage, but shall feel at liberty to elect such persons as its officers as will in the judgment of its members of the association best promote its efficiency and welfare.

"Resolved, fifth, (a) That the members of this association extend their sincere thanks to its retiring officers for their faithful services.

"(b) That we extend, by a rising vote, our appreciation to Postmaster Hoffmann, Mayor Higgins, to the Young Men's Business League of Waco, to the railroads of Texas, to the press and to the good people of Waco for the many courtesies and efforts put forth to make our sessions and our stay in Waco well attended, pleasant and profitable.

"Respectfully submitted,

"GEORGE D. ARMISTEAD, Chairman.

"R. C. CRANE, Secretary.

"E. SPEER.

"B. F. MITCHELL.

"WILLIAM A. FIELDS.

"A. H. BULE.

"W. J. BECK.

"SHAW D. RAY.

"SAM H. GARDNER."

The resolution submitted by Postmaster Richards, which aroused lively discussion and was finally tabled upon his own motion, was as follows: "Believing that the rate of postage on first-class mail matter, where such exceeds eight ounces in weight, to be

Delinquent Taxes About $30,000 in County This Year

The delinquent tax list for last year was completed yesterday by County Tax Collector Lee R. Davis and his deputies and turned in to the county commissioners' court. Approximately $30,000 in taxes was reported unpaid. This was divided as follows: State $12,845.65, county $11,415.11, road district No. 2 $5,282.95, totalling $29,543.71, and there were a few smaller items, which have not yet been tabulated.

Railroads Preparing to Handle Grain Crop

The commercial department of the Katy is compiling figures on the bumper grain crop shown along its lines and are getting the acreage, the average yield expected and condition of the harvest. The commercial agent has instructed the local freight office to send letters to all the agents along the line in this division, requesting reports from their local territories and for them to send all data in as soon as possible.

These reports are expected to begin coming in within the next few days and from these the average yield and other information will be gathered.

The Waco offices will get reports from all the Katy offices from Temple north to Waxahachie and forward these to the commercial agent.

All the railroads are making preparations to handle the grain along their lines and are preparing to handle the result of the harvesting by furnishing all the necessary cars and equipment to facilitate the prompt moving of the immense crop.

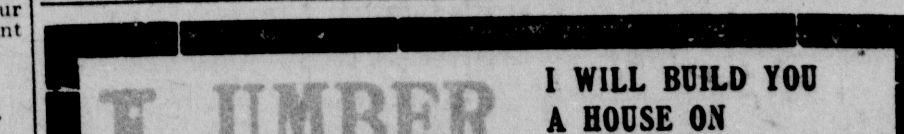

— why you wash rice — and why this rice doesn't need washing

YOU wash rice because it comes to you coated with glucose and talc. You don't need to wash Comet rice because it is "Unkoted." Most people think the rice they buy is naturally coated as it comes to them. Comet Rice shows that it isn't. It contains no glucose—no talc

That's why it needs no washing. You will find it a revelation. You will serve it more often in soups, with meats, and in many ways as a delicious dessert. Try one of the recipes on every package—or try it in your own favorite way. You and your folks will want rice more often. Tear out this advertisement and put it in your purse to remind you. Your grocer has Comet Rice, or can easily get it.
